

Comprehensive Exam Procedures

Department specific

M.S. Students

 Consult the University guidelines for comprehensive exams.

M.S. comprehensive exam should be conducted soon after the student has completed the coursework listed on the Graduate Study Plan.

 The Department requires only an oral exam, but not a written exam.

 A written thesis proposal is required within the degree requirements and is part of the comprehensive exam.

