Tuesday Tips is a new outreach effort by OGCA. The idea behind Tuesday Tips is to convey tips, tricks and other helpful information around the area of research administration. Our goal is to post on (almost every) Tuesdays. If there is something you would like to see covered on Tuesday Tips, email: UAF-GCReATE@alaska.edu. For more Tips visit OGCA website.

Executive Order (E.O.) 12549 provides that, to the extent permitted by law, Executive Branch departments and agencies must participate in a government-wide system for non-procurement debarment and suspension. A researcher who is debarred or suspended must be excluded from federal financial and non-financial assistance and benefits under Federal programs and activities.

The Federal government-wide debarment and suspension system requires grant applicants to certify that, to the best of their knowledge and belief, they and their principals, including PIs and other key personnel:

Are not presently debarred, suspended, proposed for debarment, declared ineligible, or voluntarily excluded from covered transactions by any federal department or agency;
