Native Studies by Maricia Luper

Luci Abella says course has been beneficial. I learned that Natives and all we need to do is to communicate with one another and unite.

Our guest speakers touched on important topics that let us learn to appreciate that we do need to work together to protect what we have left.

it takes court case after court case to get the federal law to recognize what Natives believe in, we'll get to our intended place in this biased

By learning about our cultures and of our people, I have begun to see a vision that is sad. I am also proud of ourselves that in time can be a great example for the world.
