Group attendance and participation	100 points
In class/homework assignments	200 points
TOTAL POINTS AWARDED	700 points

Final Grade Policy: If, at the end of the semester, you are earning an 89.6% in the class, I will not bump you up to an "A" if (1) you have not completed all assignments for the course, (2) have not completed at least one extra credit assignment [if available], (3) I will check your attendance and participation in the course. Grade bumps are given at the discretion of the professor. If a student fails an examination but completes all assignments and attends class, it is unlikely a grade bump will be given. I do not grade on the curve.

Explanation of Graded Assignments

In class/homework assignments: In and out of class homework assignments will be assigned during various times in the semester. In class assignments will usually consist of your response

Assessment: Grades will be awarded only on the basis of submitted work. Your final grade will be based on the total points you earn out of a possible 700. Grading is criteria based, not norm-based (no curve is employed), comparing your performance to the ideal performance of just above an "A."

A (700-630 points) - An honor grade; indicates originality and independent work, a thorough mastery of the subject and the satisfactory completion of more work than is regularly required.

B (630-560 points) - Indicates outstanding ability above the average level of performance.

A "C" paper will contain: Provides competent analysis of complex ideas; develops and supports main points with relevant reasons and/or examples; is adequately organized; conveys meaning with reasonable clarity; demonstrates satisfactory control of sentence structure and language usage but may have some errors that affect clarity.

A "D" paper will contain: Displays some competence in analytical writing skills, although the writing is flawed in at least one of the following ways: limited analysis or development, weak organization, weak control of sentence structure or language usage, with errors that often
