III. New business motions for consideration

MOTION: The UAF Faculty Senate moves to revise the catalog statements on academic probation and disqualification as indicated below:

Probation

Undergraduate students Students with a semester GPA below 2.3 or who have received more than one I, W or NB grade in a semester will receive a warning Students with a whose semester and/or cumulative GPA below 2.0 after any semester, including the summer session, will be put on academic probation. Students on probation may not enroll in more than 15 credits a semester unless an exception is granted by the faculty Students on probation will be referred for developmental advising or support counseling center Permitting students on probation to take a maximum of 15 credits will allow them to receive a Developmental Education Scholarship and some other forms of financial aid. That is, a student receiving a Developmental Education Scholarship will continue to receive a Developmental Education Scholarship if they make adequate progress towards a degree and should not be automatically considered ineligible for a Developmental Education Scholarship.

- 3) Students on probation are not consistently referred to developmental education on the catalog statement is not true. A website will be developed with information for students on probation. The website will continue to refer students to the most appropriate resources on a case by case basis.
