

P.O. Box 757500, Fairbanks, Alaska 99775-7500

Hello UAF Staff:

As a UAF staff member, you are represented by your department's Staff Council. Staff Councils are defined by UAF departments and are responsible for representing staff members in their departments. Each department has a Staff Council with up to 15 members. Staff Councils are elected by staff members in their departments. Staff Councils are responsible for representing staff members in their departments and for keeping track of changes.

The Staff Council has a Time Keeping Load (TKL) as a tracking mechanism to make sure that the TKL is the best for all departments. Staff Councils are responsible for tracking TKL for their departments. Staff Councils are responsible for tracking TKL for their departments and for making sure that the TKL is the best for all departments. Staff Councils are responsible for tracking TKL for their departments and for making sure that the TKL is the best for all departments.

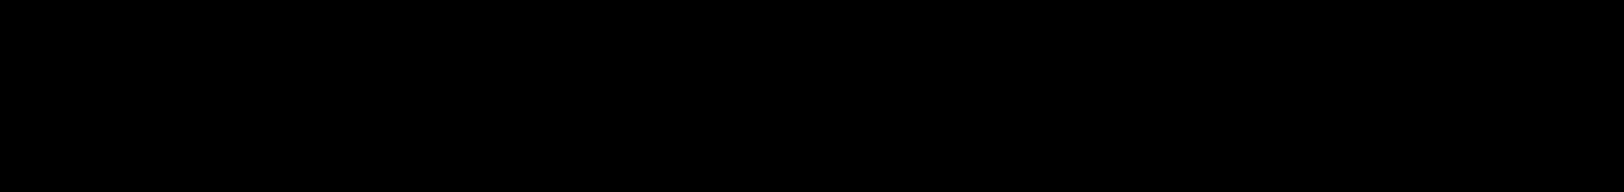

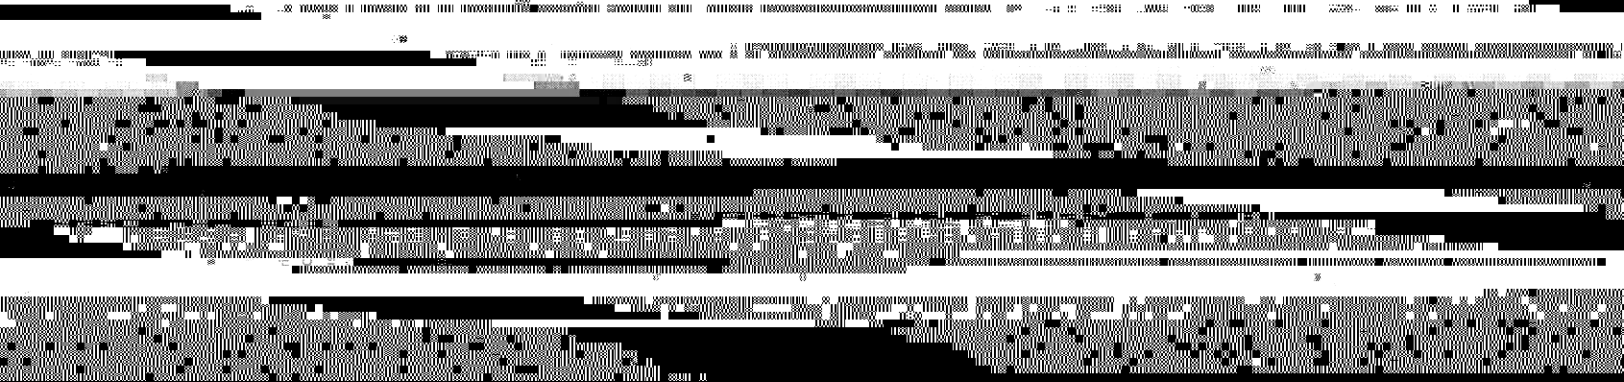

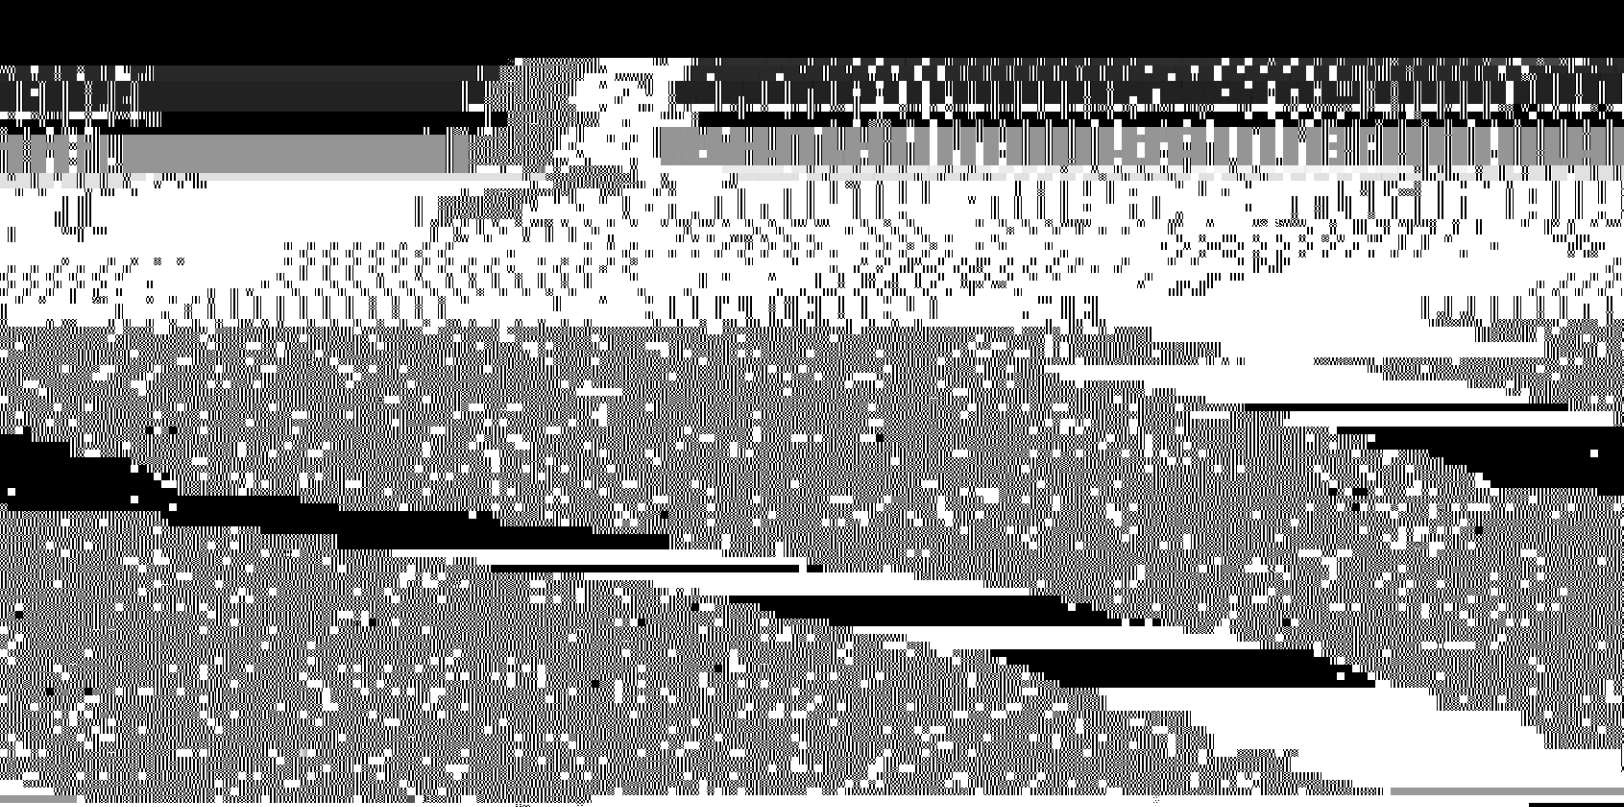

As a result of this process, staff members might have a change in their department's Staff Council. By a 30-day period, you will be notified of any changes to your department's Staff Council. You will be notified of any changes to your department's Staff Council. You will be notified of any changes to your department's Staff Council. You will be notified of any changes to your department's Staff Council. You will be notified of any changes to your department's Staff Council.
